

WRAL-FM

A division of Capitol Broadcasting Company, Inc.

Outreach Activity Description Form

August 1, 2008 through July 31, 2009.

WRAL-FM engaged in the following outreach efforts during the reporting period.

Activity: Training to management level personnel as to methods of ensuring equal employment opportunity and preventing discrimination.

The Corporate Human Resources department provides ongoing training and support of management on anti-discrimination policies and procedures and assistance in recruitment efforts to attract and maintain equal employment opportunity standards.

During this reporting period, WRAL-FM managers have participated in a mandatory management training program. Training topics have included Influencer: The Power to Change Anything, Company EEO policy and procedures, Productive Work Environment policy training, and Performance Review training.

Activity: Participation in at least four events or programs sponsored by education institutions relating to career opportunities in broadcasting.

Morning Air Personality Lynda Loveland was a guest speaker at Career Day at J.Y.Joyner Elementary School on April 1, 2009.

Activity: Establish training program designed to enable station personnel to acquire skills that could qualify them for higher level positions.

Employees have the opportunity to take various continuing education courses, including computer training, management training etc. In addition, full-time employees are eligible for tuition assistance in their pursuit of a college bachelor's or master's degree.

During this reporting period, WRAL employees were offered the opportunity to participate in a companywide employee training program called Employee Edge. This program was created to give employees the opportunity to acquire skills that could assist them in qualifying for a higher level position. Training topics included Crucial Conversations, Seven Habits of Highly Effective People, and Business Writing.